

serve.

Transforming Communities and Student Learning through Meaningful Service

Gabrielle Dardis - SERVE Coordinator

Joey Recuperio - SERVE Coordinator

20 Years of SERVE

Over 1000 Lehigh students have attended a SERVE Trip

"I see serving others as a core value for me and a part of many of my key life choices"

100%

Of pre-trip assessment respondents agree/strongly agree

SERVE is not an 'Alternative' Break

SERVE is a transformative experience

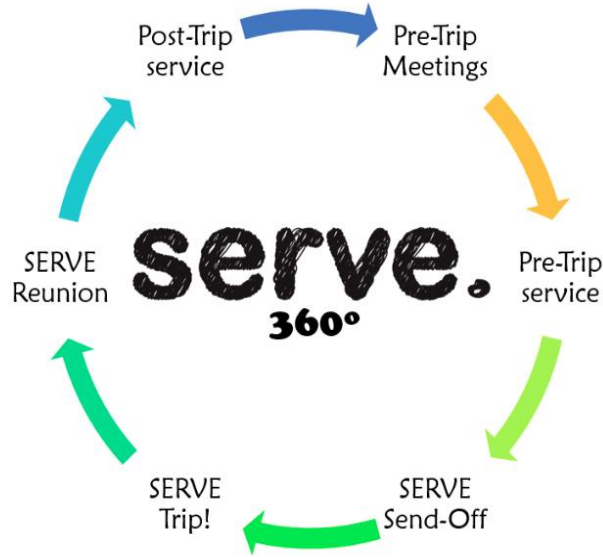

“I often find myself curious about the root causes underneath the service that I am doing”

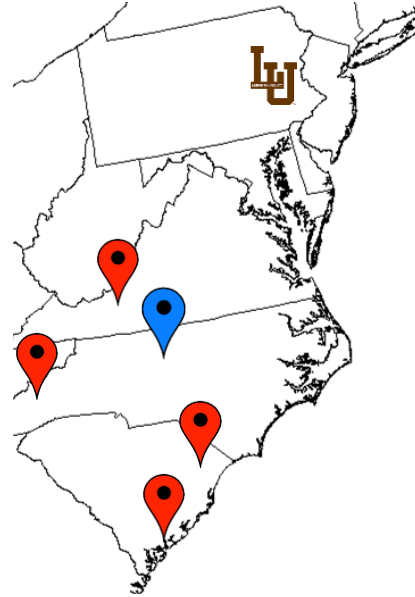

95.2%

Of pre-trip assessment respondents agree/strongly agree

SERVE: This year

break away

winterSERVE

 Habitat for Humanity

springSERVE

 Habitat for Humanity

 Long Branch Environmental Center

 REACH in Roanoke

 WINGS for Kids

Free Write

One of the biggest lessons I've learned so far is...

"You can always do something. Whether it be a small difference or a big one, anything is welcomed"

Key Impacts on Lehigh Students

Closing Reflection

SERVE impacted me...

"It reinstated my passion to serve. This trip was a blessing as I was able to learn valuable lessons and bond with other Lehigh students I wouldn't have been able to meet without this opportunity"

Areas of Focus

For 2016-2017:

- ☐ Improved Education & Training
- ☐ Increased SERVE Branding and participant recruitment
- ☐ Reorientation in South Bethlehem

Beyond:

- ☐ SERVE Participants returning and applying for leadership roles
- ☐ Increased First Year participation
- ☐ Expand the SERVE 360 experience

"...would like to continue assisting communities affected by the issue I served this week, though I am not sure what help is most needed."

94.7%

Of post-trip assessment respondents agree/strongly agree

Future Directions

Purpose:

The purpose of SERVE trips is to enable participants to build partnerships with people sharing a common goal, to gain greater awareness of the need in our country, and to deepen their commitment to social action.

WHAT?

SO WHAT?

NOW WHAT?

serve.

Thank you – Questions?

