Concept Workshops

These short content based sessions are designed to introduce students to fundamental leadership concepts and skills in a highly interactive way that allows them to gain new information about themselves, group processes, the larger community and leadership theories. These building blocks are developmentally sequenced to align with a students’ personal and academic development at Lehigh and to be a beneficial knowledge base for the group projects they are simultaneously executing.