Incident Description:
Narrative: During the Spring 2014 semester an investigation into alleged hazing by the Delta Phi Fraternity was undertaken. After interviewing members, no solid evidence of hazing was found. During the summer of 2014, a University employee was present during inspections of a Lehigh University owned property (The Delta Phi Fraternity House) and found a notebook in on a pile of trash. The notebook was dated Spring 2011 and contained information regarding the Delta Phi New Member Education program. The information constituted actions that would be considered hazing and actions that matched the allegations brought forward in the Spring of 2014.

An investigation was conducted and the information in the notebook was corroborated by members of Delta Phi as having occurred during the Spring 2014 semester. The allegations include coerced consumption of alcohol, line ups, servitude, restrictions on sleep, contact, and behavior as well as degrading actions taken towards new members.

Several members of Delta Phi including the chapter president provided false information during the most recent investigation, as well as during the investigation of the Spring 2014 allegations.
