

Ropes Course 2014 - 2015

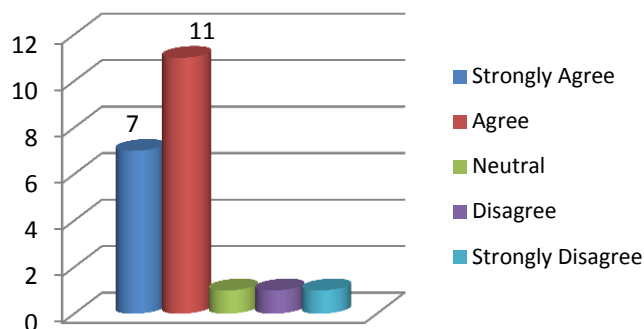

Participant Affiliation

Participants described the most valuable part of the experience as:

- Getting to know other members better
- Connecting challenges faced to real life situations
- Learning to coordinate and cooperate as a team
- Addressing communication issues

86% stated the course was beneficial to their group.

Participant Testimonials

- "I thoroughly enjoyed the course and view it as a valuable program to promote teamwork as well as breaking the ice among people."
- "Having our team work together to solve different challenges helped us work on our communication and coordination as a team."
- "The activities made it very easy to get to know the other members of my group, which was really great and really fun!"

