

Leadership Consultants 2014 - 2015

The Leadership Consultants (LCs) are a team of dedicated student staff members in the Office of Student Leadership Development (OSLD) who provide personalized consulting and interactive workshops for clubs and organizations on campus to ultimately enhance students' overall leadership potential and knowledge.

Workshop Numbers

36 requests...from 31 different organizations

29 facilitations...with 3 workshop series

5 Accreditation Bootcamps...

Fall 2014

13 workshop requests
10 workshops facilitated
2 accreditation bootcamps
12 organizations

Spring 2015

23 workshop requests
19 workshops facilitated
3 accreditation bootcamps
19 organizations

Types of Workshops

Organizations

Athletes
Greek Chapters
C2O Organizations
Honors Fraternities
Dance Clubs
Project-Based Courses
Student Organizations

Goal Setting
Motivation & Delegation
Communication
Organization & Agenda Setting
Building Leadership
Member Engagement
Officer Transition
Accountability
Professional Development
Sensitivity Conscious Leadership

Assessment Responses

100%

of respondents said:

I am satisfied with the communication prior to the workshop, including the ease of scheduling the workshop and organizing meetings in preparation.

100%

of respondents said:

The workshop addressed the goals of our group and positively affected the way our group functions!

100%

of respondents said:

The LCs were knowledgeable and helpful. I would utilize the Leadership Consultants again!

Student Affairs

Growth from 2013-2014...

- 21 more requests
- 15 more facilitations
- 23 additional organizations
- 1 more workshop series

Accomplishments of 2014-2015

- Increased number of LC applications from 21 to 27 applicants
- Created a collaboration with Student Activities and C2O Organizations
- Developed and facilitated new topics
- Facilitated 1 5x10 Workshop

Goals for 2015-2016

- Host two 5x10s and open workshops for any interested individuals
- Incorporate a structured LC peer feedback process
- Learn and employ leadership models and theories

What organizations said about LCs...

"I loved [the workshop]. It was a quick activity that provided members of C2O the opportunity to explore potential retreat topics. It helped them recognize how the activity connects to the realities of their organizations."

"Doing multiple workshops with the same LCs was a big help and kept everything organized and made it easy. I would recommend this [to] other organizations."

"Maggie was great. She was able to keep their attention and get students to refocus when they were not engaged. She asked great questions during the debrief with students."

"The [LCs who] we worked with are kind and very insightful. They have helped us through some difficulties that [our chapter] has been having."