STATEMENTS ON HONESTY

WITNESSES:

Lehigh University expects that all information presented will be true, complete, and correct. If you intentionally provide false or misleading information to the hearing panel, you will be in violation of the Lehigh University “Expectations of Conduct”; specifically: Expectation IV. “Respect for the Lehigh University Community”. You are subject to disciplinary action for providing false information. A pattern of lying or fabricating information by the respondent may be considered when sanctions are being imposed.

ACCUSED:

You have been accused of violating the Lehigh University Code of Conduct and therefore, are not required to answer any questions that are asked of you at any disciplinary proceedings. However, any information you choose to provide must be true and correct. If you intentionally provide false or misleading information to the hearing panel, you will be in violation of the Lehigh University “Expectations of Conduct” and additional charges may be filed against you. Additionally a pattern of lying or fabrication will be considered by the hearing panel/conduct officer when imposing sanctions in this case.

FACULTY/STAFF:

The Office of Student Conduct has called you to provide information related to a student conduct matter. The University expects that all the information you provide will be true and correct.
