82) If you did intervene in any of the situations listed above, please mark the most important reason why you chose to intervene.

- To preserve the reputation of my club/organization/team
- It was the right thing to do
- So a friend wouldn’t get in trouble
- So the situation wouldn’t escalate
- Someone needed help
- It was easy to help
- Because others expected me to help
- It makes me feel good to help
- I would want someone to help me in that situation
- I related to the person’s experience
- To impress others
- I think friends should look out for each other

83) If you did not intervene in any of the situations listed above, please mark the most important reason why you did not intervene.

- Assumed it wasn’t a problem
- Was afraid of embarrassing myself
- Assumed someone else would do something
- Believed others were not bothered
- Was afraid my friends would not approve/support me
- Felt that my involvement could put my safety at risk
- Didn’t know when to intervene
- Didn’t know how to intervene
- Lack of confidence to intervene
- It was none of my business
- Fear of retaliation

84) I feel I have the skills to intervene in the following situations:
