Hazing: Debriefing
2017–2018 in our Community

Chris Mulvihill & Elizabeth Shayler
The Facts

- Alpha Gamma Delta
- Lambda Theta Alpha
- Kappa Alpha
- Alpha Chi Omega
- Pi Kappa Alpha
Fraternity Hazing Cases

February 2018 - Pi Kappa Alpha was requiring new members to be at the house to perform menial services to members at all hours of the day and night. Furthermore new members were required to participate in line ups and other prohibited behavior.

February 2018 - Kappa Alpha required new members to be at the house at unacceptable hours and participate in other activities such as running errands for brothers, participating in line ups, being made to run, and being made to consume odd/disgusting food combinations.
Sorority Hazing Cases

December 2017 - Alpha Chi Omega Sorority planned and executed a scavenger hunt (Road Rally) that involved the use of drugs and alcohol, sexual activity, and other activities that violate Lehigh University policy.

March 2017 - New members of Alpha Gamma Delta were dressed in silly costumes as a part of new member education.

March 2018 - Lambda Theta Alpha was restricting new members from talking to friends, wearing make up, walking on Memorial Walkway, and other had requirements not outlined in the new member education plan that was submitted to the Office of Fraternity & Sorority Life.
Unpacking Hazing

University Definition

Chapter Culture

Other Factors
What’s my role as the advisor?
Next steps with chapter
Case Studies
Thank you!