There is a growing awareness and interest in the sustainability movement. We will explore the business challenges of balancing their business goals with the goals of the sustainability movement.

Are new technologies changing our views of metaphysics (what’s real) and morality (what’s right)? Participants in this session will discuss how recent advances in fields such as neuroimaging, virtual reality, artificial intelligence, and social networking might be changing how we see ourselves and how we approach the choices we face.

Do you have questions on what is the best way to study? How do you learn new things? How do you mentally prepare yourself to succeed? What is the best way to start something new? Come to this interactive session to discuss how to make the next big thing happen while you’re at Lehigh.

The 2004 Nobel Prize in Medicine and Physiology, awarded for unravelling the olfactory system, provides a delightful opportunity to reflect on the different kinds of thinking involved in scientific advances and abrupt discoveries. It also serves as an example of new understanding arising from field into another.

No matter what Major you choose, Personal Branding is always how to differentiate oneself such that you are better positioned for Job and/or Summer Internship placement. Personal Branding enables students to uniquely develop a career growth plan, with tips on how to win their desired job or internship.

The Magnetism of Rocks and Earth
Presented by Professor Terry Hart
Packard 20B

The progress made in the past 100 years of aerospace engineering has been nothing short of spectacular, from the Wright brothers, to the landings on the Moon, deep space probes and rovers on Mars, as well as many commercial successes, including Boeing’s 787 Dreamliner. Professor Hart reviews this history and shares many of his personal stories of his involvement.
