

DRAFT BOOK

bLUeprint your Lehigh Experience

MY DRAFT BOOK

Until now...your journey may have been outlined for you. You may have taken a predetermined path to arrive here at Lehigh.

But this journey is different. This journey is directed by you. The path is yours to create, a blank page full of countless possibilities. You decide what kind of relationships you want, how you will express your values and how you will make an impact in the community. This booklet is yours to record your thoughts, ideas, notes and observations, which may come in the form of written words, doodles, sketches...whatever makes sense for you!

This is your opportunity to create your experience. We want you to DISCOVER the Five Foundations and EXPLORE what they mean to you. We want you to CONNECT your ideas and experiences, and APPLY what you learn to real world issues and situations, but you won't have to do that alone. There are people here to help you design the best possible college and post-college experience. They are all around you - at your orientation, in the residence halls, in offices and student organizations across campus.

You'll use this book throughout your first-year specifically, and we hope it will be a helpful tool in the start of your bLUeprint journey. Find moments to pause. Think about what you've learned from the everyday experiences. Utilize the Five Foundations to challenge yourself, think about who you are, and who you want to be.

5 FOUNDATIONS

CREATIVE CURIOSITY

encourages exploration of new ideas and concepts. Students are empowered to take control of their own learning, and develop the skills necessary to be lifelong learners and innovative problem solvers.

SELF CONCEPT

encourages students to strengthen self-worth by understanding their own identities and values and expressing oneself authentically.

HEALTHY CONNECTIONS

begin with taking care of yourself. Students are encouraged to reflect on their healthy and unhealthy connections, work to identify their own personal needs and boundaries, and understand that for relationships to thrive they take attention and care.

CRITICAL CONSCIOUSNESS

is the ability to understand and analyze societal structures and systems of oppression, and to take action towards social change. We encourage students to recognize and challenge the ways in which systems can perpetuate inequality, injustice and oppression.

STRATEGIC ADAPTABILITY

recognizes that students are navigating in constantly changing environments. Students are encouraged to build skills in problem-solving, flexibility, and decision making by learning from failures and taking risks.

This pledge is a personal commitment to help keep all people safe from sexual assault. It is a promise not to be a bystander to the problem, but to be a part of the solution.

I PLEDGE to RECOGNIZE that non-consensual sex is sexual assault. To IDENTIFY situations in which sexual assault may occur. To INTERVENE in situations where consent has not or cannot be given. To CREATE an environment in which sexual assault is unacceptable and survivors are supported.

CONSENT COULD...

- Sound enthusiastic, affirmative, positive, specific, sexy
- Look like a head nod, a smile, a gesture, a wink, a thumbs up
- Smell like pheromones, sweat, lotion, eau de toilette, skin
- Taste like mouth-watering, chocolate, guacamole, spicy, pizza
- Feel like you're sober, safe, butterflies in your stomach, a cozy sweater, complete

"Lack of sex education leaves young adults without the appropriate language to discuss sex and negotiate consent. Young adults are synthesizing many nuanced factors as they navigate intimate relationships and sexual encounters. The current study highlights the potential value that may be found in teaching young adults how to openly and honestly discuss sex and consent. College students are aware of the issue of consent. Despite this, they continue to rely on nonverbal cues, which leave them particularly vulnerable to miscommunication. Although students are aware of what constitutes sexual consent, they still struggle with the value of verbally asking for consent. When students can explicitly discuss sex with partners, it not only leaves them less vulnerable to potential assault; it also affirms their partners' desires and humanity."

DeSipio, B. E., & Pallotti, C. (2023). Sex Communication: The New Consent Education. Journal of Student Affairs Research and Practice.

SEX COMMUNICATION AGREEMENT

- Describe what it would look like for you to give consent and how would you communicate that to a partner?
- What signs would you look for to know that you don't have or can't get consent from a partner?
- How would you intervene as a bystander in an incident of sexual misconduct?
- Where would you go or who would you contact at Lehigh if you have questions about sex/sexuality/sexual misconduct?
- As a new Lehigh student how could you contribute to creating a sexually safe and survivor supportive community at Lehigh?

I _____ pledge that as a Lehigh student I will: talk honestly about sex with potential partners; only engage in consensual sex; not violate Lehigh's sexual misconduct policy; intervene in harmful situations; and believe and support survivors of gender based violence."

While campus might be familiar, your second year will be full of new opportunities and challenges!

How do you think your sophomore year will be different?

Which foundation do you think you'll grow in next year?

Here are some things to think about as you prepare for sophomore year...

Declaring Your Major

What classes you have enjoyed the most in your first year at Lehigh? Connect with the Center for Career & Professional Development to do more career exploration, talk to Lehigh people in particular fields, and explore more about your strengths and interests.

Getting Involved

It can be hard to get involved in everything you wanted to during your first year, but you still have the chance to explore. Check out LINC for different clubs you can join when you come back to campus in the fall.

Engaging with the Community

South Bethlehem is our home and we hope you get to explore it even more and continue to be good neighbors! Get started through the Community Service Office or explore the SouthSide Arts District!

New Roommate

Time to re-adjust and set new expectations. Living with friends can be fun and can also be challenging. Be sure to discuss expectations with your new roommate(s) so that you all can start off on the right foot.

Utilize your Campus Resources

Lehigh's campus is full of different resources that want to help each and every student, so continue to take advantage of them during your sophomore year!

HEALTHY CONNECTIONS

Who are you surrounded by when you feel your best? What about your relationships energize you or hold you back? What does it look like to have empathy for yourself and others in a relationship? What boundaries will be helpful to set for yourself and future relationships?

CRITICAL CONSCIOUSNESS

How have your perspectives and ideologies been challenged since you came to Lehigh? What privileged or oppressed identities that you hold have impacted you here at Lehigh? How will you engage in your community and contribute to a socially just world?

CREATIVE CURIOSITY

What are you passionate about? What's something new you've tried since coming to Lehigh? How do you expose yourself to new ideas? If you could solve one big, real-world problem, what would it be?

SELF CONCEPT

What are your values? What experiences and identities have shaped you? In what spaces and with whom do you feel you can be your most authentic self? How will your decisions align with your values?

STRATEGIC ADAPTABILITY

What makes you feel grounded? What is a challenge you've faced? How did you react and move forward when that challenge presented itself? How will you navigate the unknown and/or failure?
