CAMPUS SAFETY: BEYOND THE BASICS
Neville 003
This session will highlight safety measures we take as a University, as well as ways students can protect themselves in a variety of social situations.

SUPPORTING YOUR FIRST-GENERATION COLLEGE STUDENT: A PARTNERSHIP
Whitaker 303
Being the first person in your family to go to college is a great accomplishment. There will be many more “firsts” to come as your student transitions to this new community. Join us for a crash course on how to support your students as they navigate the Lehigh experience.

♦ BREAKOUT SESSIONS #1
→ 2:30PM – 3:10PM

CAMPUS RESOURCES 101
Neville 001
This informative and comprehensive session provides a general overview of academic, housing, involvement and other resources available for your student at Lehigh.

PREPARING TO LAUNCH: LETTING GO AND STILL BEING THERE
Neville 002
Learn to manage the post-launch interactions with your child. Families will have the opportunity to talk with returning students as well as with professionals at Lehigh who provide support for students.

STUDENT INVOLVEMENT: THERE’S SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE!
Neville 001
Learn about Lehigh’s robust list of clubs and organizations as well as Fraternity and Sorority life at Lehigh and the process to join these organizations.

FINANCIAL AID 101: NOW WHAT?
Neville 002
An information session for families of Lehigh students to discuss what you need to know now that your student has started school.

FAMILIES IN TRANSITION: MOVING FROM ADVOCACY TO SUPPORTING YOUR STUDENT WITH A DISABILITY
Williams Hall Roemmelte Global Commons
Disability Support Services (DSS) is committed to ensuring a smooth transition for both students with disabilities and their families. In this session, families of students with disabilities will meet the Disability Support Services team, learn about the various ways DSS supports Lehigh students with disabilities, and discover how best to assist students to become self-advocates who successfully navigate their educational experiences.

ALCOHOL, POLICIES, AND OTHER RESOURCES
Whitaker 303
A significant part of your student’s growth during the next four years will be rooted in their ability to make responsible and smart life decisions. Join us for a talk with faculty and staff about Lehigh’s community standards regarding alcohol including policy and consequences as well as alcohol-free social alternatives to ensure a safe environment where your student can thrive.

♦ BREAKOUT SESSIONS #2
→ 3:20PM – 4:00PM
